

I need someone who can make a decision.

JOHN G. MARTIN, SENIOR MANAGING DIRECTOR

I don't need the person who can run it up the ladder. I don't need the person who thinks it sounds good and will get back to me. I need the person who can make it happen. The person who has the experience and the ability to execute in the middle market. And who will support the deal the whole way because they made the decision. When I have this, the rest is easy.

I need someone who is committed.

TYLER W. LINDBLAD, CHIEF CREDIT OFFICER

I need a lending partner who's not going to wilt when the going gets tough. No shrinking violet, but someone who knows that business in the middle market can be a full-contact sport. Where even the best of plans will take a few knocks on the way to the goal line. I need someone who will see it through.
